- Girls to wear Hijab and loose fitting clothes covering their bodies such as loose fitting long pants/skirts and shirts with long sleeves.
- Clothing with inappropriate sayings or images is not permitted.

Parents' Responsibilities:

- Bring students to school on time and in a proper state of health, well groomed, dressed in accordance with the Islamic Dress Code, and prepared to class with pen/pencil, notebook, textbooks, and completed homework assignments.
- Encourage students' positive attitude toward learning by emphasizing the importance of Islamic knowledge.
- Reinforce students' learning by reviewing with the students during the week at home the materials covered in class and following up on their homework assignments and Qur'an memorization.
- Encourage students to observe the Islamic etiquette for behavior in dealing with teachers, school administrators, and fellow students.
- Please be sure to label your students books and belongings. It is a good idea that each student have a bag specifically designated for the Weekend School so that books and supplies are not forgotten or lost.

Students' Responsibilities:

- Observe the Islamic etiquette for behavior in dealing with teachers, school administrators, and fellow students.
- Assume full responsibility for erroneous acts or bad behavior and accept disciplinary actions when applied.
- Cell phones are not permitted to be seen, ring or vibrate during classes.
- All students must participate in congregational prayers during the Weekend School.
